E-MAILING

In this part of the test, I'm going to ask you some questions to give you the chance to have a conversation. You are not only required to answer the questions, but also to provide reasons for your answers.

Let's talk about e-mailing:

1. How important is e-mail to you?
2. Do you prefer writing e-mail or real letters with a pen and paper?
3. How much time do you spend reading and writing e-mails?
4. Do you think e-mails are fun?
5. Do you ever receive spam mail? What do you do with it?
6. Have you ever pressed 'send' and then wish you hadn't?
7. Are you good at replying quickly to e-mails?
8. How many different e-mail accounts do you have / need?
9. Which e-mail provider do you use (Hotmail, Gmail, Yahoo..)? Are you happy with the service?
10. Do you think e-mail can be dangerous?
11. When was the last time an e-mail made you very happy or excited about something?
12. Are you worried that governments or criminals can read your mail?
13. Have you ever waited, and waited for an e-mail to arrive? How many times did you check?
14. If you could secretly have access to someone else's e-mail account, who would it be and why?

AGE

I'm going to ask you some questions to give you the chance to have a conversation. You are not only required to answer the questions, but also to provide reasons for your answers.

Let's talk about age:

1. What's your ideal age?
2. What are the joys and problems of your age group?
3. How do you feel about growing older?
4. Would you like to be 100? Or be back in your teens again?
5. Do you think we should try to disguise the ageing process?
6. Is youth overrated nowadays? And old age underrated?
7. Have you heard of the Peter Pan effect? Can you guess what it refers to?
8. Do you find it easy to communicate with other age groups?
9. Is it better for people to be part of a family or to live independently? Think of different age groups and of the advantages or disadvantages of each.
10. The proportion of people over 65 is increasing in many parts of the world due to declining birth rate and better medicine. How does this compare with the situation in the past? What benefits/problems are derived from this?
