

Sorry for not writing earlier but I've been incredibly busy because I have a new job in a hotel.

I'm writing to thank you for letting me stay with you in August, this travel was amazing because I ~~could know~~ met a lot of people and my English got better.

I'll never forget when we went to the Espionage and we were dancing all night but I loved to visit some places as ~~Ness-Lake~~ Ness and Glasgow, It's a great country!

I hope that you are more relaxed in your restaurant because in my new job, I don't have any free time and now I'm studying a new ~~career~~ course so I'm incredibly busy.

Thanks again for everything and don't forget my invitation to come to Spain, all my friends would love to meet you.

Take care and kisses love
xx
